

From Cambridge / Bury St Edmunds A14

Exit at junction 37 (signposted Ely, Newmarket A142) and follow signs towards Fordham/Soham. After approximately 1.5 miles, go straight over a roundabout and then after approximately 500 yards straight over the next roundabout, signposted towards Fordham and Mildenhall. After 150 yards take the second of two small turnings on the left leading up a long gravel drive with a large lawn on the right. Follow the long gravel drive and continue left into the car park. Walk past the white building with blue door and into the courtyard between the black barn conversion (ACS) and the stone building (unit 3). Evolve are located on the ground floor of unit 2, at the rear of the site.

From Ely A142

Take A142 from Ely follow the road for approx. 5.5 miles until the Fordham turning on the BP garage roundabout. Follow the road through Fordham past the White Pheasant and out onto the Newmarket Road. After about 900 yards, you'll see Fordham House set back from the main road on your right, behind a large lawn. Take the third turning on the right left leading up a long gravel drive with a large lawn on the right. Follow the long gravel drive and continue left into the car park. Walk past the white building with blue door and into the courtyard between the black barn conversion (ACS) and the stone building (unit 3). Evolve are located on the ground floor of unit 2, at the rear of the site.